

Cavan – Tyrone: Route Corridor A

Route Corridor A is outlined in red in the below map. The indicative line route, marked in black, is approximately 45 kilometres long. Crossing the border at a point northeast of Clontibret, Co. Monaghan, it runs south to a proposed new substation near Kingscourt, Co. Cavan. To view more detailed maps please contact your local information centre.

